

BxArts Factory's mission is to make art accessible to everyone in the Bronx. The Factory's Programs support local artists and arts projects.

During this 7-Saturday Program Students will...

Week 1: Explore different topics related to themselves as well as their communities in order to get familiarized with the creative process and to find inspiration and set goals.

Week 2: Visit local galleries, museums and/or artists' studio.

Week 3: Build, deconstruct and refine the concept for their culminating Art Exhibition project and will begin to design the show.

Weeks 4: Have Hands on studio time, creating art, and the drafts for the exposition. Teachers and Resident Artists/Curators will guide and mentor students during this process.

Week 5: Have a second visit to local galleries, museums and/or artists' studio. During this second visit students will have the opportunity to finetune their work through observing art, comparing and contrasting as well as gathering ways to improve their work.

Week 6: Refine or redefine their art pieces. They will engage in peer reviews and or visiting/resident artist reviews. They will also focus on observing the setting, construction and reflective process required to create an art exhibition

Week 7: Set up exhibition and Opening Reception.

MISSION

The mission for the Think, Create, Share Lab is to engage students, teachers and the community in the professional and creative aspects of being an artist. We hope to inspire the younger generation of underrepresented youth to pursue an arts college degree and career path.

Through the guidance and mentorship of art teachers, curators and artists in the community students will develop the necessary skills to be admitted into the art program of their choice, be prepared and develop their style to apply to art programs and to succeed in such a competitive field.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this project is to engage a selected group of High School Students, that are passionate and committed to their artistic creation, to participate in a hands-on experiential seven-Saturday program. The program will guide and prepare them to develop an artistic life and habits, prepare a college competitive art portfolio and eventually prepare them to conduct interviews with higher education institution in hopes to join an arts program as a career path.

DATES: May 11, 18, 25, June 1, 8, 15 and 22, 2019.

Each session starts at 12:00 noon and ends at 3:00 pm.

Schedule may vary on the days that we have trips.

For more information & to apply visit BxArtsFactory.org

At the end of the pilot project students should be able to:

1. Describe and understand the creative process and art techniques used by visiting or resident artists.
2. Understand the process and practice of creating an art exhibition.
3. Complete a series of art pieces based on a concept developed by themselves.
4. Understand the process and practice on how to include their artwork into an artist portfolio.
5. Describe their own creative process and artwork during the art exhibition.

This program is a FREE 7-week Saturday opportunity offered to a selected group of students interested in the arts. The students must commit to participating in the entire 7-week program. Metro-cards and refreshments will be included in the program.
